CREDENTIALING TIES & GROWTH

- Ties:
  - Voluntary certification exam funding for ALL enlisted Navy active duty and enlisted Navy reserve personnel
  - Mandatory certification exam funding for Cyber IT/Cyber Security Workforce (CSWF) personnel (enlisted, officer, DoN Civilian)
- Growth:
  - More and more Navy Learning Centers/courses are finding that their courses directly align to civilian certifications. A few Navy schools allow their students (or recent grads) to voluntarily take the civilian cert exam, for example:
    - METC Pharmacy Training Medical Education & Training Campus (METC), the first class of Pharmacy techs through the new command, had a 100% pass rate on their PTCB certification exam on April 22, 2011
    - Navy Diver (ND) Mixed Gas Dive school allows their students to apply for Mixed Gas Diver certification upon passing Navy course final exam. The student submits their dive log to the certification agency and earns the cert based solely on passing the Navy course (no civilian exam required).
    - Navy Basic Instructor Course matches 100% towards CompTIA Certified Technical Trainer certification.
